

“I Live in the Camp”: Stories of Roma Children in Milan
 (“Je vive dans le camp” -histoires d’ enfants roms de Milan)

Name of organisation:
Community of Sant’Egidio

Summer of Solidarity: Young Roma from Scampia in Naples have a party with elderly home
residents

You learn a lot of things at the Peace Schools of the Community of Sant'Egidio: for many children around the world – and in Italy for many Roma children – they are a real help for success at school.

And you also learn to honour and respect the elderly. So, on one hot summer’s day, a group of young Roma from Scampia, an ill-reputed area of Naples – organised a party for the elderly residents at the San Giuseppe Institute of Villaricca. Young Roma and elderly folk together: the pictures of the party speak volumes. Not an accumulation of “problems”, but an unleashing of solidarity.

Source: “News”, website of Community Sant’Egidio, July 30, 2008.

<http://www.santegidio.org/index.php?pageID=3&id=2566&idLng=1064&res=1>