

1010 Wayne Avenue, Suite 870
 Silver Spring, MD 20910
 Office: 301-589-1130 Fax: 301-589-1131

July 1, 2008

Human Rights for All Table of Contents

Chapter 1. What are Human Rights?          A. Introduction          B. Life in a new country: What rights would you choose?          C. The Universal Declaration of Human Rights and other human rights documents          D. Ways to classify human rights and duties          E. Looking back - applying what you have learned	Chapter 4. Social and Economic Rights          A. What are social and economic rights?          B. Rights against discrimination          C. Family rights and protection          D. Rights to adequate education          E. Rights to adequate food, housing and health care          F. Property ownership: private rights and public need          G. Rights to work: conditions, pay and abuses
Chapter 2. Political Rights in a Democracy          A. Is it important to participate in governments?          B. How can people participate in democratic governments?          C. Freedom of expression: What is it? Should it be limited?          D. Structuring democratic government to reduce the abuse of power	Chapter 5. When Human Rights Abuses occur: What can be done?          A. Non-violent conflict resolution: Negotiation, Arbitration and mediation          B. Groups and tactics on the local, national, regional and international levels
Chapter 3. National Security and Fair Procedures Following Arrest          A. Limiting human rights because of national security          B. Fair Procedures: When someone is detained or arrested          C. Fair Procedures: When someone is put on trial          D. National emergencies and torture	Appendices          A. Abbreviated version of UDHR          B. Plain language and original versions of UDHR          C. The African Charter on Human and People's Rights          D. Summary of the Convention on the Rights of the Child

E. Prison conditions
F. The death penalty: What are its aims and consequences?

Click below to search our site.

www.streetlaw.org