

“Law In Everyday Life:” A Law-Related Education Course and Resource

Name of organisation:

Grodna Public Association of Young Intellectuals “VIT”

Law in Everyday Life – students’ textbook and teachers’ manual¹

Table of Contents:

1. Why we need rules.
2. Social norms – moral, religious and legal. Rights and responsibilities – are they connected?
3. The State and the legal system. Legal and non-legal laws. Human rights as a framework for laws and legal system. How to analyze the law. What to do if the law is non-legal.
4. How laws are made. How we can influence lawmaking.
5. How law is implemented. Public control over implementation of the laws.
6. How we can influence changing the law.
7. Why we need lawyers. Access to justice. What are human rights lawyers.
8. Courts and system of justice.
9. Alternative ways of settling disputes.

¹ Full version in Belarusian is available at: http://nastaunik.info/files/f/174_prava_na_kozhny_dzen_textbook.pdf,
<http://kamunikat.net.iig.pl/4923.html> (students’ textbook), http://nastaunik.info/files/f/173_prava_na_kozhny_dzen_manual.pdf, <http://kamunikat.net.iig.pl/4925.html> (teachers’ manual)